UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CHRISTOPHER RECOUVREUR,)

Defendant.)

REQUEST TO APPEAR BY TELEPHONE

Plaintiff Christopher Recouvreur requests leave for his lead counsel, who is based in Washington, D.C., to appear by telephone at the case management conference scheduled for Monday, October 15, to save the expense and time of long-distance travel. His Northern California counsel is prepared to appear in person if the Court so desires, but otherwise would appear by telephone as well.

Defendant claims not to have been served, and is not expected to appear; defendant has not, as of this filing, been willing to meet and confer about the case management statement. Plaintiff has filed a motion establishing that defendant is evading service, requesting leave to serve by email, and requesting an order deeming service complete. Docket Item No. 19. That motion is set for hearing on November 15.

Even though defendant is not expected to appear, the Court is requested not to cancel the conference, because plaintiff wishes to address the Rule 4(m) deadline for service at the conference.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Paul Alan Levy
